Honorable William E. Colby
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D.C.

Dear Director Colby:

On February 9, 1975, the Washington Star-News carried an intriguing article about the labors of a CIA employee named [redacted]. The article says, in part, that local police departments have

It may prove to be quite valuable as my Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights builds upon the legacy of Senator Ervin by considering legislation concerning individual privacy.

I would greatly appreciate an early response to my request.

Sincerely,
